Reflection Questions on Sermon

1: What are some qualities of God that you have come to know and trust because scripture revealed them to you?

2: How can you have daily time set apart to read God's word by yourself? What is needed to do so with those in your household?

3: Why do you think God desires for you to meditate on his Word daily?

UP glorifying God;

“let all the peoples praise You, O God!” Psalm 67:3

If you are willing to lend your Christmas tree please store it in an accessible spot you can access in the summer. We would prefer you do not bring them right away as we have limited storage to keep them safe and undamaged till VBS.

COMMUNION Volunteers

We are still in need of volunteers to help with the set up and clean up of communion for the year. Please connect with the office if you would like to help in this way.

Partner in Ministry and Missions

NAIM Isaac and Dene

This past summer Isaac and Dene were supporting a young mother up until October when she made the decision to move back with her adoptive family to give birth and have her family care for mom and child after birth. The time period with the young mom was fruitful and continues to be as Dene gathers donations and plans a baby shower for the young mom and her daughter. Their kindness has been an encouragement. Isaac was able to connect with a youth that is in the young offenders institute in Edmonton, were they were able to speak about the youth's spiritual walk. The youth groups, girls group and boys group programing has started back up as well as a gathering of young adults. A retreat is in the works and they are welcoming the more reliable routine.

- Continued energy and enthusiasm, and the wisdom and words needed to support and encourage the young people in their ministry.
- Isaac and Dene are in the need of a new living arrangement in Wetaskiwin. Please pray for an opening and a smooth transition.
- Financial support. There is a shortfall in support. Please pray that supporters rise up and financial support comes in.
