TAKE COVER

A storm looms, the wind picks up, a weather warning notification pops up on our phones; an urgent desire for shelter grows with each new threat. We consider places that may be available to take refuge and hunker down until the dangers have passed.

Harsh words are spoken, angry tones intensify; discomfort grows with each conversation. As it becomes obvious that a relationship is further deteriorating, we long to be sure that the trustworthy people in our lives will remain in our corner to defend us.

Confidence in our abilities begins to crumble, signs that we have lost control become clear, and all certainty shifts to uncertainty. As we are sucked into a downward spiral of negativity, we long for something sturdy to grasp, something secure to help us regain our footing.

Have you considered the options for taking cover when life seems to be falling apart and hopelessness is on the horizon?

A community of people from Camrose and area gathers at Resurrection Church, in coffee shops and homes to share our need for shelter from life's storms. We would be very glad for you to join us as we support one another, remind each other of the truth, and build resilience by taking shelter in a merciful, gracious, and loving God.

We welcome you to page through this booklet to see the opportunities and activities that are available with the people of Resurrection Church. You are invited to join any of these events.

Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies; in You I take shelter.
