

Questions for reflection

1. In what ways do people seek healing outside of Christ today? What are the results of these methods?
2. Has your joy in God ever been squashed by someone's concern over religious rules or traditions? What did that do to you?

East Central Asia

Kate and I are in our last month before we head overseas to our new host country. We are full of excitement over working in this new country. We will start our time off for the first year in language study (learning Russian) and networking with diffident NGO and non profits to determine who God will be leading us to work with.

Please join us in prayer

- for our logistics of finding a house and getting settled in and for us to build good relationships.
- Pray for us in this last month to manage all the last-minute details.
- Praise God for opening these doors, and the ways that he sees and knows our family!
