Reflection Questions on Sermon

1. Read Isaiah 53:4-5.
   What benefits come to others because of the Servant's suffering?

2. In several New Testament references the Servant Song of Isaiah 53 is applied to Jesus. Look up the following passages:
   - John 1:29
   - Acts 8:32-34
   - 1 Peter 2:22-23

   Describe how each of these verses points to Jesus' life, death and resurrection as a fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy.

3. How does the Suffering Servant bring peace?
   In what way is this Gospel (good news)?

4. What does it mean to you that our Lord is a King who pays the penalty, rather than one who demands pomp and pageantry?

UP glorifying God;

"let all the peoples praise You, O God!" Psalm 67:3

Praise items

- Lord we thank You for allowing us to participate in Your work of blessing children around the world with the shoeboxes we were able to pack, may the mouths that sing Your praises multiply
  (Psalm 154:21)
- Jesus, we give You thanks that You have borne our griefs and carried our sorrows, thank You for being afflicted by God for our sake
  (Isaiah 53:4)

IN interceding for one another;

"be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people" Ephesians 6:18

Special Needs

- Father in the midst of trial and troubles of all kinds, it can feel as though You do not hear us when we cry out to You. Lord, fill us with the faith that as You heard our spiritual ancestors crying out to You and were with them in trouble You hear us and are with us
  (Psalm 22:5)
- Jesus, You are one acquainted with grief and You know our grief, whether in the loss of a loved one, a diagnosis, an ailment that persists or changing life circumstances. In the midst of our griefs, have mercy and send Your Spirit to comfort us
  (Isaiah 53:3)

OUT to needs beyond

"petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people" 1 Timothy 2:1

- God, we pray that around the world Your followers would have the boldness to tell of Your name to their brothers, their families, and their neighbours
  (Psalm 22:22)
- Jesus, all authority on heaven and on earth has been given to You, in this world which You've created, wars rage on and image bearers are oppressed, we pray that You would set these things right
  (Matthew 28:18)

CLBI IMPACT TEAMS

Please pray for this year's CLBI IMPACT Teams! We have 6 incredible second year students attending. The ladies will be going to Malawi, and the men to the Philippines! We also have two amazing team advisors, both with connections to CLBI, who have been coming alongside the students with preparation and will be traveling with them. The teams will be departing on January 5 and returning on January 26.

Please pray for Team Malawi; Allison, Rachel, Amy, and Shelly (advisor). and Team Philippines: Evan, Gabe, Adam, and Kevin (advisor)

Pray for their in-country hosts who will be guiding them, and pray for God's provision in all that is needed.
Pray for the places and people that the teams will be going to meet and serve, that the love of God would be known and that his light would shine brightly through the students! Pray for the students, that they would come to know God in deeper ways through this time, and experience his great love for them, as well as the local and glocal church!

You are all invited to join us November 22 at CLBI, noon to 1:30pm for our Meatballs for Missions fundraiser! All the proceeds will go towards the IMPACT program. More information will be shared then, and you can talk to and pray for the students in person! Please share any questions you have by either calling CLBI at 780-672-4454, or emailing me directly at impact@clbi.edu.
Thank you so very much for your prayers and support!
