Reflection Questions on Sermon

1. When life feels uncertain, we often try to take control. What are some ways you find yourself doing this? Why is it sometimes difficult to trust God with things we cannot control?

2. Isaiah 30:15 reminds us that our strength is found in returning to God and trusting Him. What does it look like practically to bring our worries and concerns to God rather than carrying them on our own?

3. Trusting God doesn't mean doing nothing. Is there a situation in your life where you need to take a faithful next step while leaving the outcome in God's hands? What might that look like?

UP glorifying God;

"let all the peoples praise You, O God!" Psalm 67:3

Praise items

- God, on You alone rest our salvation and glory, we praise You that these are not things we need to strive for but things we have because You are our rock and refuge (Psalm 62:7)
- Gracious Father, thank You that You wait to be gracious to us even in our rebellion, that You may save us, thank You for Your patience (Isaiah 30:18)

IN interceding for one another;

"be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people" Ephesians 6:18

Special Needs

- Lord, we ask You to give to us our daily bread, everything we need to live, food, clothes and shelter. You know all of our needs, help us not be anxious as we wait on Your faithful provision (Matthew 6:34)
- Lord God, we pray that we would return and rest and be saved; that our strength would be in quietness and in trust (Isaiah 30:15)

OUT to needs beyond

"petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people" 1 Timothy 2:1

- Jesus, You said when we feed and clothe the least of these we feed and clothe You. We pray that You would stir up compassion in the hearts of Your people in Camrose to have mercy on those experiencing homelessness and let us respond with the love You've first shown us. (Matthew 25:40)
- Lord, we pray more and more around this sin-sick world would find shelter in You as their refuge (Psalm 62:8)

Partner in Ministry and Missions

Shalayne - Prayer League

Shalayne has been settling in to life in the Philippines. She recently celebrated her birthday by free-diving in the ocean. The family have been renovating their house and have finished creating a bigger space for Shalayne to help with the children's homeschooling, as well as a personal room for Shalayne to sleep in.

She had the opportunity to attend a women's retreat with the theme "laying down all your burdens." This was an uplifiting retreat at the right moment. Many of the speakers have been working cross culturally for awhile and were a good source of support as Shalayne continues to process the new experiences and challenges.

As Shalayne continues to settle into her life working and living with a missionary family, helping them with their homeschooling, etc. she has requested prayer for energy and motivation to keep learning the language. That homeschooling can continue well, that the children would continue to be excited to learn. Pray also for meaningful opportunites to connect with the children and others around her. Pray also for continued peace and joy in her calling.
