Reflection Questions on Sermon

1. What “story” do you find yourself slipping back into most easily—one where you have to prove yourself, or one where you receive peace and forgiveness from Jesus? What does that look like in your daily life?

2. Where do you need to hear Jesus say, “Peace be with you”?

3. How is Jesus sending you to live as a person of peace and forgiveness this week?

UP glorifying God;

“let all the peoples praise You, O God!” Psalm 67:3

Praise items

- Jesus, we are eternally grateful that You are at the right hand of the Father interceding for us.
We praise You!
(Romans 8:34)
- thank You Lord for opportunities to gather with others with whom we share our faith to be encouraged and spurred on (Hebrews 10:25)

IN interceding for one another;

“be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord’s people” Ephesians 6:18

Special Needs

- Lord, for those who attended Easter weekend worship services and heard of Christ’s sacrificial love, we ask that You continue to stir up the gift of faith and other gifts of God in accordance with Your will
(2 Timothy 1:6)
- Holy Spirit, grant those who call on You in their suffering the ability to rejoice even in their anguish
(2 Corinthians 5:18)

OUT to needs beyond

“petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people” 1 Timothy 2:1

- that God’s people around the world would be characterized as not only those who are forgiven but those who forgive
(John 20:23)
- amidst all the distressful situations in the world, we look to You, Prince of Peace, to bring consolation to every desolation
(John 14:27)

ALPHA

Alpha has been going in the COMP this school year since the week after the teachers' strike wrapped up. We started meeting weekly at the new Catholic high school in February. At the COMP there has been an average of 20 students a week in attendance and about 10 at St. Carlo Acutis.

At the COMP we have been watching one of the Alpha series that is geared towards high school students. At St. Carlo Acutis, we've been using a series called "The Search" which is produced by the Catholic church. It is also geared towards high school students. Both have led to rich discussions about faith and life.

Part of our ministry at both schools is bringing pizza in for the participants and also as a draw to bring in other students. One of the highlights from the year so far, was bringing a box of Bibles given to us by Share Word Global. The students at the COMP took all the Bibles in the box for either their own use or to give to someone else.

We ask that you would join us in prayer for the students who are attending these meetings weekly that they would be drawn into a closer relationship with the Lord and that those who do not yet know Christ would come to know him as Lord and savior. Please also pray for the students who are present in the room but not necessarily for alpha, that they would be drawn into conversations and deeper considerations about faith. And pray for other students in both schools that the Holy Spirit would draw them to Jesus either through this ministry or elsewhere.

If you are interested in supporting Alpha in more ways than praying for our efforts, we have a fund that many churches in town give towards to cover the cost of pizza, you can e-transfer to donations@rezchurch.ca with a note that it is for Alpha pizza.
