Reflection Questions on Sermon

1. During what experience in your life do you remember being shaken?

2. In what ways did God use your experience of being shaken?

3. As you consider Isaiah's experience, other biblical examples, or your own story, describe the results of an encounter with the holiness of God.

4. John's vision in Revelation 4 echoes Isaiah's vision (Is. 6).
"Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!"

Read further in Revelation 4 to the end of the chapter.
In what ways is the picture of those worshipping at the throne similar to the experience Isaiah had when he was called by God (Isaiah 6:1-8)?

How is this relevant to us today?

UP glorifying God;

"let all the peoples praise You, O God!" Psalm 67:3

Praise items

- Gracious God, we give You thanks that the emblem of Your promise not to flood the earth is ever around Your throne
(Revelation 4:3)
- Father, we thank You that in our ailments You do not abandon us, but You are faithful. We thank You for the ways You've brought healing within our congregation, for this we praise You for being great and awesome
(Psalm 99:3)

IN interceding for one another;

"be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people" Ephesians 6:18

Special Needs

- Lord, we ask that You would reveal our sin to us and lead us into contrition and repentance that we may be cleansed and eagerly answer Your call to go, saying, "here I am, send me"
(Isaiah 6:5-8)
- Jesus, we ask for those who are experiencing changes in their life, going through a period of transition, that You would be their steady rock on which they stand
(Matthew 7:25)

OUT to needs beyond

"petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people" 1 Timothy 2:1

- Holy Spirit, preserve those who are persecuted for their faith, give them the endurance to persevere and for those You've called to follow Jesus to the cross, give them confidence in the promises of God
(1 Peter 4:19)
- Lord, we pray for the unrest in Europe, establish equality, execute justice and righteousness, may they turn and exalt you as Lord and God
(Psalm 99:4)
